WELCOME TO THE ISSUE

’Tis the season for new possibilities—and what better way to enjoy the holiday months than with a little help from our December/January issue? We’ve compiled our annual gift guide, where you’ll find something for everyone in your life, as well as a treasure trove of the season’s most opulent jewels and a hot list of the most highly anticipated moments in fashion and culture for 2016. Elsewhere, Valentino’s creative directors, Maria Grazia Chiuri and Pierpaolo Piccioli, talk about their bold new direction for spring; Jeanette Winterson discusses the real lessons to be learned from Shakespeare; and Anjelica Huston recalls her experiences sitting for both Richard Avedon and Andy Warhol. Just in time for the New Year, we reveal the secrets to achieving a new you with tips on how to eat and drink healthfully at holiday parties, along with a workout customized for Bazaar’s readers by Orangetheory’s Ellen Latham. The season shines bright.
